

ONE HUNTER KILLS THIRTY-NINE BEARS

This Is Record of Samuel
Pierce, on Fish Lake
Reservation.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, Oct. 4.—The trapping of thirty-nine bears by one hunter, Samuel Pierce, on the Fish Lake national forest, since May 1 of this year is the report brought to the local headquarters of the Fourth district by Supervisor C. B. Arenstson. The Fish Lake supervisor arrived in the city today for a conference with District Forester E. A. Sherman and other officers of the district.

Amateur bear hunters among the employees of the district headquarters received something of a thrill when they learned from Supervisor Arenstson that a single bear was so persistent in destroying cattle on the Glenwood division of the forest that the stockman offered $125 for its scalp. A Richfield hunter was successful in trapping the prize bruin and secured the full bounty with its additional reward.

In securing his thirty-nine bears during the present season, Mr. Pierce started at Mayfield, Utah, traveled up Twelve Mile creek, crossed Salina canyon and hunted as far south as Fish Lake. Other bear hunters in that region, according to the forest supervisor, have experienced an excellent season.

Fish Lake as a pleasure resort is growing in popularity as there are as many as 1500 visitors in a day during the tourist season. The state is improving the fishing by introducing several additional kinds of fish, among them rainbow and eastern brook trout, steel heads and mackinaw. Mackinaw fish are now caught in the lake as much as twenty pounds. From the fish hatchery which is maintained, young fry are transported to the heads of the streams which flow into the lake and it is interesting to note that while the native trout hatch in June and July, the eastern brook trout hatch in October.

Ten elk from Jackson, Wyo., were shipped by the state and county to the Fish Lake forest in the spring of 1912 and twenty-five last spring. Although two in the first shipment and three of the last were injured in loading, and subsequently died, the rest are doing well and two calves were born in the spring of 1912 and three the last spring. They have been kept in Abe Casto's pasture, twelve miles southeast of Salina, but will be turned out next spring in the large state game preserve, which has been created in the center of this forest. The state has created another game preserve in the Nebo national forest to which elk were also shipped last spring.

The Salina canyon road now made available to automobile and other traffic the entire distance from Salina to Emery, forty-two miles, by the building of twenty miles at the Salina end, is greatly appreciated by citizens of that region. This was done by an appropriation of $6000 by the state and $4800 by the government. The road from Monroe canyon has been built at a cost of $5000, which permits travel by team directly up the canyon from Monroe, whereas previously it was not possible to go up the canyon except on foot and teams were obliged to take a circuitous route of about ten miles to get lumber from the saw mills.

Canning Season Nears End.

Special to The Tribune.

The season, which has been a successful one, is drawing to a close, although some of the factories will be operated as long as the tomatoes continue to ripen. No frost damaged the tomatoes this year and the canners were not forced to pack slightly frosted tomatoes, as was the case last season.

City Sanitary Inspector George Shorten has received from the Salt Lake office a sheet of birth certificates with instructions to have the various physicians reporting the cases file new certificates in which can be read by the filing clerks. Inspector Shorten has returned the reports to the local physicians for translation.

R. M. MORRISSEY TAKEN BY DEATH

Former Football Player Believed to Have Died From Old Injuries.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 4.—Injuries received while playing football seven years ago are believed to have brought on the attack of Bright's disease which resulted in the death of Richard M. Morrissey, 25-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Morrissey, at the home, 2915 Lincoln avenue, this morning. He was formerly engaged in the cigar business in this city, but recently had been employed as a block signal maintainer.

Although the young man had been ailing since he received the football injuries seven years ago, his condition was not regarded as serious until two weeks ago, when he was forced to take to his bed. He weakened gradually, the end coming at 8 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Morrissey was born at Woodstock, Ohio, December 10, 1888. At the age of 2 years he came to Ogden with the family, remaining a resident of this city up to the time of his death. After acquiring his education in the public schools of the city, he was graduated from the Ogden high school with the class of 1907. In addition to the parents, he is survived by two brothers, Raymond and Edward Morrissey, both of Ogden, and one sister, Mrs. C. D. Clark of Evanston, Wyo.

The funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. P. M. Cushman at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 10 o'clock Monday morning. The body will lie in state at the family home, and may be viewed by the friends Sunday afternoon and evening. Interment in Mountain View cemetery.

OGDEN IS TO HAVE COSTLY MAUSOLEUM

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 4.—Within the next thirty days, possibly earlier, according to representatives of the company, work will be started on the erection of a $45,000 mausoleum in the Ogden City cemetery. This structure, the first community burial vault in this city and state, is being promoted by the Intermountain Mausoleum company, composed entirely of Ogden and Salt Lake men.

R. E. Bristol, general manager of the Ogden Portland Cement company, is president of the mausoleum company, the other officers being E. B. Porter, vice president; John Pingree, treasurer, and C. H. Hollingsworth, secretary. All are Ogden business men.

Among those on the directorate, in addition to the officers named, are C. E. Kaiser, David O. McKay, David C. Eccles, H. C. Tavey, R. S. Joyce and John Vasson.

Occupying a ground space of 124 by 64 feet, the mausoleum building will contain crypts for 342 bodies, in addition to a large main corridor, funeral chapel, receiving vault and rest room. With the body of the structure constructed of reinforced concrete, it will be faced on the interior with marble and Bedford stone will be used in the exterior decorations. Much bronze will also be used in the interior fittings.

After purchasing the patent rights to one of the most modern mausoleum designs, the Utah company was formed for the purpose of promoting the erection of the buildings throughout the intermountain region. This is the first mausoleum to be erected by the company. Having sold a sufficient number of crypts and family burial vaults to insure the successful construction and maintenance of the mausoleum, contracts have been given to proceed with the construction as soon as orders for material can be filled.

The Magnetic Girl

HOW SHE COMPELS OTHERS
TO OBEY HER WILL

100,000 Copies of Remarkable Book describing Peculiar Psychic Powers to be distributed Post Free to readers of "The Salt Lake Tribune."

"The wonderful power of Personal Influence, Magnetism, Fascination, Mind Control, call it what you will, can surely be acquired by everyone no matter how unattractive or unsuccessful," says Mr. Elmer Ellsworth Knowles, author of the new book entitled "The Key to the Development of the Inner Forces." The book lays bare many astounding facts concerning the practice of Eastern Yoga, and describes a simple though effective system of controlling the thoughts and acts of others; how one may gain the love and friendship of those who might otherwise remain indifferent; how to quickly and accurately judge the character and disposition of an individual; how to cure the most obstinate diseases and habits without drugs or medicines; even the complex subject of projecting thoughts (telepathy) is explained. Miss Josephine Davis, the popular stage favorite, whose portrait appears above, declares that Prof. Knowles' book opens the door to success, health and happiness to every mortal, no matter what his or her position in life. She believes that Prof. Knowles has discovered principles which, if universally adopted, will revolutionize the mental status of the human race.

The book, which is being distributed broadcast free of charge, is full of photographic reproductions showing how these unseen forces are being used all over the world, and how thousands upon thousands have developed powers which they little dreamed they possessed. The free distribution of the 100,000 copies is being conducted by a large London institution, and a copy will be sent post free to anyone interested. No money need be sent, but those who wish to do so may inclose 5 cents (stamp of your own country to cover postage, etc.). All requests for the free book should be addressed to: National Institute of Sciences, Free Distribution Dept., 88-D, No. 25, Westminster Bridge Road, London, S. E. England. Simply say you would like a copy of "The Key to the Development of the Inner Forces," and mention The Salt Lake Tribune. Do not inclose coins in your letter. Postage to England two cents. FIVE ARE IN RACE TO SUCCEED NYE

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, Oct. 4.—Another candidate for four-year commissioner who has been regarded as a prospect from the start became a positive aspirant today, when Chris Flygare formally announced his candidacy. This is the fifth name to be added to the list of candidates desiring to succeed Commissioner J. C. Nye, while the office of mayor-commissioner seems to have almost been forgotten.

Although all of the candidates named have not filed their petitions, the line-up to date for the primary election on October 21 is as follows:

For mayor-commissioner—A. G. Fell, incumbent; H. M. Rowe, J. W. Wagner, Socialist.

For city auditor—W. D. Van Dyke, incumbent; A. L. Larson, Joseph J. Hill, Socialist.

For municipal judge—W. H. Reeder, incumbent; Gustave Holmgren, Socialist.

So far as indicated at the present time, no organization, with exception of the Socialist party, has entered into the campaign. All of the candidates, with exception of the Socialists, are on a nonpartisan basis. Regarding their previous political affiliations, all are Republicans with the exception of Mr. Flygare, who is a Democrat. The secretary of the Betterment league has announced that the organization is in fact, but no meetings have been held up to the present time. This organization took a prominent part in the last city election.

Comparatively few of the petitions of candidates have been filed with the city recorder, although the time for meeting this requirement is only one week distant. Petitions of candidates must be in the hands of the recorder two weeks prior to the primary election.

ARE TRAMPS FOR EXPERIENCE.

Experiment Ends in a $20 Fine in Ogden Police Court.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, Oct. 4.—Beating their way from Idaho to Ogden on an Oregon Short Line freight train for the novelty of the experience cost E. O. Wyatt, Glen Wilson and Julius Matthias $20 each when they were arraigned in Judge W. H. Reeder's court this morning. Witness testified that they had money in their pockets when they decided to take the trip but thought it would be great fun to ride a freight train instead of a passenger coach.

Special Officer Frank Shumaker found them hiding in a car of cattle which were being shipped to the Utah state fair.

THINKS SELF SLAYER.

OGDEN, Oct. 4.—Suffering from the mental aberration that he recently committed a murder in Butte, Mont., Frank Reinhardt is confined in the padded cell at the county jail, having been taken into custody by the Ogden police late last night. The young man becomes violent at times and there is said to be small chance of his recovering sufficiently as to be given his liberty.

Reinhardt told the officers that he arrived in Brigham City from Butte yesterday and then walked the remainder of the distance to this city. When he went to the home of a friend in the southern part of the city for supper last night he acted so queerly that the police were summoned.
